N°. 519.

THE Pennſylvania GAZETTE.

Containing the freſheſt Advices Foreign and Domeſtick.

FROM NOVEMBER 16. TO NOVEMBER 24. 1738.

From the LONDON-MAGAZINE for Auguſt, 1738.

ON the 28th of laſt Month, a dreadful Fire broke out at the Peacock-Inn at Wellingborough in Northamptonſhire, the greateſt Part of the ſaid Town near 300 Houſes being laid in Aſhes.

It is computed, that ſince the Commencement of the Gin-Act, about 12,000 Perſons have been convicted on the ſaid Act, within the Bills of Mortality only.

The following is the Number of Britiſh Men of War now in Commiſſion. In the Weſt-Indies and Coaſts of America 26. In the Mediterranean and Coaſts of Africa 22. In Commiſſion at home 55. Out for ſome Years and now coming home 4. In all 107. The Complement of Men is 26059.

Aug. 5. We hear that the Wife of a Peaſant in the Diſtrict of Boiſleduc was brought to Bed of eight Children, ſeven Girls and one Boy, who were all living.

Aug. 9. A dreadful Fire broke out at Crawley, a Village about 5 Miles from Wincheſter, which almoſt conſumed the ſame, moſt of the Inhabitants being out at Harveſt Work.

Aug. 10. We had an Account from Edinburgh, that on this Day a Whale of a very large Size was ſeen at Eymouth entangled among the Rocks; the Fiſher-men made immediately at the Prize, and, with Darts and other Inſtruments, managed ſo well as to kill and get her aſhore: She is upwards of 50 Foot long, and is ſaid to become the Property of Sir John Hume, tho' 'tis probable the Admiral will diſpute it.

Aug. 15. About 200 Medals in Gold and Silver of the famous Oliver Cromwell have been lately ſtruck at his Majeſty's Mint, from a Dye of the ſaid Cromwell, cut during his Protectorſhip, at the Tower of London, and lately bought at Liſle in Flanders by an Engliſh Virtuoſo on his Travels, who brought it to London.

From the Poliſh Camp at Wimnica, Aug. 22.

IT's reported that the Ruſſian Army is actually quitting the Dnieſter, and returning towards the Bog. And the News from the Turkiſh Army is no leſs ſurprizing, which brings, that it will not repaſs the Dnieſter, but will march to Oczakow, and again lay ſiege to that Place. The Commander of the Turkiſh Army has ſent Deputies to the Palatine Smolenſko, to aſſure him, that as ſoon as the Ruſſians ſhall have retir'd out of Poland, the Troops of the Grand Signior ſhall withdraw in like manner; and that an abſolute Satisfaction ſhall be made for the Damages they have occaſioned.

LONDON, Aug. 22. It's ſaid, that the Court of Spain has at laſt conſented to make full Satisfaction to the Britiſh Merchants, for the Depredations mad on them by the Spaniſh Guarda Coſtas, which, it's ſuppos'd, has proceeded from a Conſciouſneſs of the ſuperior Strength of the Britiſh Nation, which has about 90 Men of War at preſent in Commiſſion, 40 of which carry more than 50 Guns; whereas Spain has not in the whole above 55, 40 of which carry fewer than 50 Guns, which makes a very conſiderable Difference: Beſides, the preſent Syſtem of the Court of France does not ſeem to be ſo favourable to the Deſigns of Spain as that Court could wiſh, the former refuſing to take Part in this Quarrel, not only as the latter has been the Aggreſſor in it, and has hitherto rejected all reaſonable Expedients for bringing obout an Accommodation, but poſitively perſiſts in refuſing to accede to the definitive Treaty of Vienna, an Acceſſion which the Cardinal is ſo ambitious of effecting: Wherefore, it's aſſur'd, that his Eminence has declar'd to the Earl of Waldegrave, that ſo long as the Dutch remain neuter, his moſt Chriſtian Majeſty will not intermeddle in the Spaniſh Affairs.

Aug. 31. The laſt Letters from Conſtantinople, by the Way of Venice, bring Advice, that they had a Report there, that Dgianum Coggia, Captain Baſhaw, or Admiral of the Turkiſh Fleet, had taken a few Ruſſian Veſſels in the Sea of Aſoph, laden with Proviſions for the Ruſſian Army in the Crim: They add, that they obſerve a profound Silence in that Capital on the Negociations of Peace with the Chriſtian Powers, for fear of alarming the People, who ſtill threaten to revolt upon the firſt Step the Porte takes for that Purpoſe, and revenge themſelves on the Miniſters of the Divan, who ſhall lend a Hand towards it.

Her Royal Highneſs the Princeſs of Wales is again with Child.

We hear that Barbary is ſtill in a very ill Strte, having now four Kings, and the way they are got into of dethroning and proclaiming Kings may not end ſoon, the late Muley Iſhmael having left above 300 Sons, who all claim a Right to the Empire of Feſs and Morocco, and an Army of Blacks rules all.

Sept. 5. On Friday laſt, about 5 in the Afternoon, the Corpſe of the Rt. Hon. Sir Joſeph Jekyl, Knt. Maſter of the Rolls, was privately inter'd in a Vault near the Altar in the Rolls Chappel in Chancery-Lane, who died worth 100,000 l. It's certain he has left the Intereſt of l. 10,000 South Sea Annuities, and the Intereſt of l. 10,000 Eaſt-India Stock, to his Lady for her Life, and after her Deceaſe, the ſaid Stocks, worth about l. 28,000, to the ſinking Fund. We hear he has left 2000 l. to the Widows and Orphans of Diſſenting Miniſters, to be diſpoſed of at the Diſcretion of Mr. Jekyl (who lived with him) his Executor, to whom he has

has left his Northamptonſhire Eſtate; and after ſeveral particular Legacies, he has left the Reſidue of his Eſtate among Twelve of his Relations, who it's reckon'd will get about l. 2000 each.

PETERSBURG, Sept. 3. The Court has receiv'd Advice, that Lieutenant-General Stoffel, Commandant of Oczakow, was march'd from thence to endeavour to ſeize upon Bialogorod; he took the Advantage of the Abſence of the Turkiſh Troops, the greateſt Part of which and all the Tartars are gone to joyn the Army commanded by the Seraſkier of Bender, and that of the Sultan of Bialogorod on the Dnieſter: We impatiently expect the News of the Succeſs of that Enterprize. We are aſſur'd that the Velt-Marſhal Count de Munich, in decamping the 9th of laſt Month, cauſed a Report to be ſpread, that he would return to the Ukrain; and that that Report coming to the Turks, they gave ſo much the more Credit to it, becauſe in reality he took the Route to it by remounting the River Bialocze. It is added, that in that Belief above 20,000 Janiſaries and Arnautes paſs'd the Dnieſter againſt their General's Will, to go, as they ſaid, in Purſuit of the Run-aways, but found ſo ill an Reception from them, that the greateſt Part of thoſe Troops were cut to Pieces. It is ſaid, that the Ruſſian Army will continue its March along the Dnieſter as far as Soroka near Choczim.

Sept. 6. A Confirmation of the Advantages gain'd by the Ruſſians over the Turks, in a fifth Action, has been ſent here by Count Munich, and Te Deum has been ſung for the ſame. People impatiently expect to hear of his having paſs'd the Dnieſter, which nothing will hinder him from doing, but the Apprehenſion of wanting Forage on the other ſide that River, the Enemy having burnt and deſtroy'd the Country, to deprive the Ruſſians of Subſiſtence.

WARSAW, Sept. 13. It's reported, that there has been a ſixth Action between the Ruſſian Army and that of the Turks, between the Dnieſter and the Bog, in which the Ruſſians have again got the Advant. Whether this News be true, or only Rumour, will aſcertain'd in the next.

VIENNA, Sept. 13. The Grand Duke of Tuſcany arriv'd the 6th at Buda, and ſet out next Day to take upon him the Command of the Imperial Army. They write from Belgrade, that the Engineer General de Beauffe was dead there. The Baron de Cornberg, late Governor of Orſova, has been arreſted, and eſcorted to the Imperial Army, for having too precipitately ſurrender'd that Place, in which were not only 200 Pieces of Cannon, but much Ammunition and Proviſion, beſides what the Chevalier Campitelli found Means to introduce; and that at leaſt he might have obtain'd a more advantageous Capitulation. The Grand Vizir has cauſed the two Baſhaws, who let the Chevalier Campitelli paſs by the Iſland of Borecz, to be ſtrangled. They write from Belgrade, that 1500 Imperial Foot, who were to cover ſome Forragers, had been ſurrounded, and defeated by the Turks.

That the Imperial Army continues encamp'd near Belgrade, and will probably remain there till the Deſigns of the Grand Vizir are known. Many Parties have been ſent ont, in order to penetrate into them, but as yet nothing that can be depended on has been diſcover'd. Some ſay, that the Grand Vizir is marching with 100,000 Men towards Belgrade: Others, that he is marching towards Niſſa, on account of an Inſurrection reported to be at Conſtantinople; and that he has only ſent a Part of his Army to beſiege Temeſwaer, which Place has been reinforced with ſome Troops, and the Sluices laid open, to protect the ſame againſt any Surprize. Count Wallis has taken upon him the Government of Belgrade, where there is a Garriſon of 6000 Men; and in caſe it prove true that the Grand Vizir is marching towards that Place, the Imperial Army will paſs the Sove, and be near enough at hand always to throw the neceſſary Succours into that Fortreſs.

From Genoa, that the Maſter of a Veſſel arriv'd there from Sicily, reported, that he ſaw upon the Coaſts of that Kingdom, ſix Sultanas, or Men of War belonging to the Grand Signior, which cruiſed upon ſuch Neapolitan Veſſels as they met with in the Mediterranean.

From Rome, That the Pope has juſt publiſh'd a Bull, whereby he excommunicates Prince Ragotſki and his Adherents, for having taken up Arms againſt the Emperor in favour of the Turks.

PARIS, Sept. 15. 'Tis confidently reported, that the Count de Belleiſle has receiv'd Orders to hold himſelf in Readineſs to go take Poſſeſſion of Luxemburg. Several indeed ſay, that this News merits Confirmation, and will ſcarcely be credited till even the Buſineſs be executed: However, there are Letters which certainly affirm it, and even add, that if the War between the Emperor and the Turks continues another Campaign, his moſt Chriſtian Majeſty may poſſibly not only get Poſſeſſion of Luxemburg, but ſtill ſome other more important Part of the Barrier; which Letters likewiſe ſay, that the French, in general, extenuate, as much as they can, the Advantages gain'd by the Ruſſians over the Turks; and that it is publiſh'd in France, and there only, that the Schach Nadir, better known by the Appellation of Thamas Kouli Kan, had ſent two Ambaſſadors to Conſtantinople, in order to confirm and render perpetual his laſt Treaty with the Grand Signior.

They write from Gottenburg, that a Ship from China was juſt arrived there, which the Swedes tho't had been loſt. And from Vienna, that the Affairs of the Imperialiſts are in a very bad Situation in Hungary, who every where fly before the Turks, who, it is ſaid, are upon the Point of inveſting Temeſwaer and Belgrade; and that no body dare to talk of Orſova in the hearing of the Emperor.

LONDON, Sept. 16. The Advices from Hungary continue to give us but a miſerable Account of the Imperial Affairs on that Side: The Germans are greatly mortify'd at the Loſs of Orſova, in which was a fine Train of Artillery deſign'd for the Siege of Widdin laſt Campaign. The Turks ſeem determin'd to make an Attempt upon Belgrade; and it is feared the Imperialiſts will have enough to do to fruſtrate their Deſigns.

Private Letters from Vienna intimate, That Prince Charles of Lorrain had been ſhut up in Orſova by the Turks, and that it was to preſerve his Liberty that the Place ſurrender'd ſooner than otherwiſe it needed to have done.

The Grand Duke of Tuſcany, however, is ſet out for the Army from Vienna; which looks as if they yet hoped to do ſomething this Campaign.

Sept. 18. It's reported at Paris, that the King of Spain has ſent the Order of the Golden Fleece to Prince Ragotſki, and that the King of the Two Sicilies had put him into Poſſeſſion of the Eſtate which belong'd to him in the Kingdom of Naples; the Enjoyment of which he had been depriv'd of whilſt that Kingdom was under the Dominion of the Emperor.

This Week a Court Martial will be held at Portſmouth, for the Trial of ſeveral Captains for Miſdemeanors committed by them on the Iriſh Coaſt. Admiral Cavendiſh ſits as Preſident.

Extract of a Letter from Amſterdam.

It is not the Spaniards only, who take Ships under Pretence that they carry on a contraband Commerce; the Danes have juſt now acted in the ſame Manner, in reſpect to a Dutch Ship which they met with, and took in David's Streight's, alledging as a Reaſon for ſo doing, that this Ship which was going a Whale-Fiſhing, had been guilty of purſuing a fraudulent Commerce in the Eſtabliſhments that the Crown of Denmark is in Poſſeſſion of in thoſe Parts.

IT is now some Months since a Book was published in this City, with the Title of All Slave-Keepers, &c. Apostates. In the Preface to which are these Words, viz. "These Things following are so far from offending or grieving my very dear, true and tender Friends called Quakers, who love the Truth more than all; that it is by their request and desire that They are made publick." From which Paragraph it is not improbable some Readers may be persuaded to believe the Author was one of the People called Quakers, and that his Book had been printed at their Request, especially, were they to be altogether silent on this Occasion. Therefore, they have thought it fit, and hereby do give publick Notice, that the Book aforesaid contains gross Abuses, not only against some of their Members in particular, but against the whole Society: That the Author is not of their religious Community; that they disapprove of his Conduct, the Composition, and Printing of his Book; and therefore are not to be accountable for its Contents.
